PACKERS DEFENDED

Delegation Tells Senators State Owes Prosperity Largely to Them.

OPPOSE KENYON'S BILL

Cut Food Cost, Say Wholesalers.

Washington, Sept. 9.—A group of stockmen from the middle West, principally lows, and several wholesale meat and produce dealers from various cities cined in defence of the "Big Five" packers to-day before the Senate Agriculture Committee. The Kenyon and Kendrick bills proposing Federal license Kendrick bills proposing Federal license regulation for the industry and other re-strictions found no supporters during

"It's a pity this sort of a bill had to come from a prosperous State like Iowa," said J. S. Blackwell of Muscatine, referring to the fact that Senator Kenyon (Iowa) is sponsor for the chief rigulative measure. "Iowa cattle feeders are prosperous and land values have some up in the last few years from $50 rs are prosperous and land values and state of the criminal court and sherin case, one up in the last few years from $50 of the criminal court and sherin case, as $500 an acre, due to the fact that the and it was announced to-day that the stock and are made a market for our suards had been instructed to shoot any packers have made a market for our "Do you think the packers are en-

"Do you think the packers are entirely responsible for these high prices? Don't you think world shortage had something to do with it?" queried Senator McNary of Oregon.

Biackwell admitted that there were some other causes for the Iowa prosperity, but insisted the packers were entitled to a part of the credit. He spoke of the Federal Trade Commission as being responsible for "a one sided report" on the packing industry.

C. H. Will and J. J. Leghorn, also from Muscatine, and J. B. Nichols of Nichols, Ia, supported Blackwell's statement, with variations setting forth the undesirability of Government restrictions undesirability of Government restrictions business enterprises.

Calls Iowa Prosperous.

"Your people are not at all alarmed by the spread of the big packers and their intervention into other business lines?" inquired Senator Capper (Kan.). "No, they are furnishing things cheaper than other people or they couldn't ex-tend," replied Brenton.
P. S. Haner and Roy A. Johnston

of Taylorville, Ill., expressed similar views, derived, they said, from exten-sive experience in the cattle business. W. B. Schneider, a Kansas City whole-saler in groceries and meats, said the licensing proposals were unfair and would add to the cost of food distribu-

Ralph Hurst of Kansas City took a similar view. Others who protested against regulation were O. Nessweig, an independent packer at Madison, Wis., and W. E. Robinson, a vegetable canner at Bellair, Md.

Lewis H. Haney, representing the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, gave out after the hearing a letter lie had written to Senator Gronna (North Dakota), chairman of the Agriculture Committee, charging that the larger packers were inducing witnesses to attend the hearings.

Hints Packer Propaganda.

"In this connection I would suggest that the committee call Mr. Brooks of Swife & Co., put him under oath," the letter said, "and ask him how much money the five big packers have spent or have become obligated to pay to date in railroad fares, hotel bills, &c., for any of the witnesses." for any of the witnesses."

"I wish this committee would tell me what profiteering is," said O. Nessweig, an independent packer of Madison, Wiss, after making a protest against the reg

"Anybody is profiteering who takes an unreasonable or exorbitant profit," re-plied Senator Harrison (Miss.). "West, what is an unreasonable profit?" persisted Nessweig.

"My uotion that it is what some of these shoe fellows get." Senator Harri-son responded. "Generally I think that getting more than 15 or 20 per cent. K profit on a product is profiteering. Don't you think that 20 per cent. on meats is "Yes, if it is 20 per cent net," con-
